INTEGRAL SYSTEMS HONORED AS 2009 REGION III PRIME CONTRACTOR OF THE YEAR U.S. Small Business Administration Recognizes Excellence at National Small Business Week

COLUMBIA, MD, May 21, 2009 – The U.S. Small Business Administration has honored Integral Systems, Inc., (NASDAQ-ISYS) as the Region III Prime Contractor of the Year during the administration’s 2009 National Small Business Week. The Small Business Prime Contractor of the Year Award recognizes small businesses that have provided government and industry with outstanding goods and services as prime or subcontractors. Region III includes Pennsylvania, Delaware, Maryland, West Virginia, Virginia, and the District of Columbia.

“We are honored to receive this distinction from the Small Business Administration,” said Integral Systems CEO John Higginbotham. “As one of the more than 27 million small businesses in the U.S., Integral Systems strives to provide excellent services to our core customers, including the government. We are pleased to be recognized among our peers for our ongoing success.”

Integral Systems develops integrated technology solutions for satellite interfaced systems for government and commercial customers. The company has served the U.S. Air Force, NASA, National Oceanic and Atmospheric Administration, and satellite operators around the globe for more than 25 years. Integral Systems has completed more than 200 satellite missions for communications, science, meteorological, and other applications.
